Why Staffing 101?

Staffing 101 Group separates itself from other Staffing firms by delivering superior customer service, delivering top notch talent and always meeting deadlines. While Staffing firms can be rigid with their terms/conditions, we are very flexible so we can match the needs of our clients as no two clients are the same.

- We offer 24/7 availability to put clients at ease knowing someone is always on the job.
- We offer onsite support so managers are free to do what they need to do and not worry about monitoring temp staff.
- We know our clients and their business so second interviews aren't necessary
- Someone didn't show up for work; we will have an employee on site within 2 hours
- We treat your business as if it's our own

We've staffed temporary projects for companies that have ranged from 2-3 to over 1000 candidates.

- Retail associates across NYC filling over 500 positions for the Black Friday weekend.
- Last minute fills due to call outs for clerical, light industrial and events.

Our Executive Search team fills the most difficult roles for companies in very time sensitive formats such as

- A call center manager for an international company branching into the US.
- A sales executive with experience specializing in medical devices and orthopedics.

We're transparent, accountable and most importantly, we care (and we really mean it!!!).
